Number	1	Name	Jiang Jielian	Sex	M	Age	17	Home Location	Beijing Municipality
Work Unit / School	Second year student of Class 4 of the High School of China People's University
Circumstances of Death	Jiang left home at around 10:30 p.m. on June 3, 1989. At about 11:00 p.m. behind the long flower bed in front of Building No.29 at Muxudi, a bullet went through the left-side of his back and came out his chest. He was taken to the Beijing Children's Hospital for emergency treatment, which failed to save him. The hospital certified that he was "dead on arrival." He was cremated on June 7 at Babaoshan and his ashes are kept at home.

Number	2	Name	Wang Nan	Sex	M	Age	19	Home Location	Beijing Municipality
Work Unit / School	Second year student at Yuetan High School Beijing
Circumstances of Death	Wang left home with a camera at 11 p.m. on June 3, 1989. In the early morning of June 4, he was shot at the south entrance of Nanchang Street. The bullet hit him in the head. Troops prevented a medical emergency team from giving him treatment. He died two or three hours later. Together with other corpses, his body was buried in front of Beijing City No.28 Middle School, to the west of Tiananmen Square. On June 7, due to the pungent smell of these corpses, the school complained to the authorities and the bodies were exhumed. Since Wang had been wearing army clothing, he was thought to be a soldier of the martial law troops. His body was therefore taken to Huguosi Hospital and was located by his family on June 16. On June 26, Beijing Public Security Bureau issued a certificate stating that he had "died when outside," making it possible for his body to be cremated at Babaoshan. Ashes of his remains are now in the Remains Hall of Wan'an Public Cemetery.
